

I being a vacationer on the ferry to Put in Bay in the summer, and others like me, find it absurd to put 9/11 security measures on the ferry system. Lets use a little common sense on this one. The government has already ruined the airline industry. You want to do the same to the ferry system?